FlexVey PUR

The new pliable conveying system for the transport of feed

FlexVex PUR – innovative, flexible and wear-resistant!

FlexVey PUR is a conveying system for the transport of feed and a completely new development from Big Dutchman. With FlexVey PUR, your feed – be it meal, pellets or crumbs – passes from the silo into the house safely and without any loss of quality. Complicated mounting around corners is now a thing of the past. FlexVey PUR makes Big Dutchman the only supplier of an innovative product for feed supply with a significantly longer service life. Endurance tests have clearly proved this.
